

VetPrac Norbrook Clinical Essay Award

Win a VetPrac surgical training voucher valued at $2500 plus $500

Establishment

This Prize has been established by the generosity of VetPrac, an organisation that provides practical skills training for registered veterinarians in clinical practice and Norbrook a true pharmaceutical innovator; dedicated to novel research and revolutionary processes and products.

Prize Conditions

Awarded to the 5th Year student undertaking a Bachelor of Veterinary Medical Science, submitting the best clinical placement essay.

Essay topic: Outline one or more practical techniques you have learned in clinical placement (maximum 1000 words).

The five best essays as determined by Murdoch University staff will be submitted to VetPrac for selection of recipient. To be awarded at Registration Day Ceremony. A representative of VetPrac will be invited to attend ceremony and present award.

Selection of Candidate

The winner shall be selected by VetPrac

All submissions must be sent to the e.hislop@murdoch.edu.au email address, clearly marked in the subject line "2014 VetPrac Award in clinical practice"

